

ONE CENT—LAST EDITION—ONE CENT

TEXT BOOK BREAKS INTO ORPET CASE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 228

Chicago, Friday, June 23, 1916

398

CARRANZA TRYING TO LINE HIS MEN UP TO AVOID HOSTILITIES?

Attitude of Generals Unpleasant—Events Point to Gen.
Trevino Getting Beyond Carranza's Control—
Mexicans Invade U. S. and Steal
Horses Is Report.

Washington. — Administration men still declare they have reason to believe Carranza is trying to get his men in line and avoid hostilities. Attitude of his generals, on other hand, is unpleasant. Trevino's reported approval of Carrizal dash and announcement that he would take similar action in same circumstances regarded as indicative of threatening trend of events perhaps beyond Carranza's control.

Columbus, N. M.—Mexican bandits are today reported to have invaded United States 50 miles west of